BILLY DUNN RESCUED.

He is Taken Away From Pyramid by the U. S. Marshall.

Yesterday Billy Dunn the Indian who killed Charlie Winnemucca was brought to this city and lodged in jail for safe keeping. U. S. Marshall Kelly on receipt of a dispatch from Agent Gibson went to the Reservation with three deputies and took charge of the Indian. Kelly arrived just on time to save his neck as the Indians had sentenced him to death and would have hung him at noon yesterday.

Dunn's version of the trouble to an Appeal reporter yesterday is as follows:

"Charlie Winnemucca wanted to marry three sisters, all daughters of Bull Tom one of them Rose is my wife. I married her last August."

Charlie says to me last Winter when I was on the ice that he would put me under and the Indians would think I fell in. He called me all sorts of names and said he would kill me and take my wife. I tell my wife and she cry a good deal.

Once I say I go away and live some where else to save trouble, she love me a pretty good deal and say for me to stay. Charlie is a big man over six feet high and he call me hard names all the time. I fold my arms and take it all as I am too small to fight Charlie.

Every time he meet me he tell me he take my wife away.

Finally I got so that I feel I had better fight him and get killed or kill him and have the trouble over. So I walked up to him with a knife and stabbed him in the breast. He rolled over and died, and his relations catch me and tie me up.

Frank Jones the policeman then kicked me in the face after my arms was tied behind my back, and Charlie's aunt hit me on the head with an ax. They were going to hang me sure if Kelly had not come and taken me away.

I am not sorry I killed Charlie. I had to do it sooner or later."

Dunn's head and face is badly beaten up and he tells a straight-forward story.

Do not take quinine for malarial disorders. Ayer's Ague Cure contains none, nor any other injurious ingredient. This preparation if taken strictly in accordance with directions, is warranted to cure all malarial diseases.

The life-giving properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla have established its well-earned reputation, and made it the most effectual and popular blood purifier of the day. For all diseases of the Stomach, liver, and kidneys, this remedy has no equal. Price $1.

ALL SORTS.

Miles Finlan's habeas corpus case comes before the Supreme Court on Monday.

The cultivation of bamboo for fencing material has begun in California. It is said that an acre will produce pickets enough each year to make six miles of fence.

Jack Skewes and Shuman a Bodie lawyer had a shooting scrape in Bodie Wednesday.

Skewes pistol ball missed his man and mortally wounded H. Cohn a dry goods merchant who was taking no part in the row.

Geo. T. Davis has just received some pure Maple Syrup of this year's run, soldered and sealed in the rock Maple groves of Vermont.

Try it on biscuit and hot cakes made of Pioneer flour.

Mr. Boles says the Glidden barb wire can not be broken by any fair tension. It is the best made.

The Chinese of San Francisco, taking their cue from the stingy millionaires, want reductions on their assessments and fight their way before the Board as skillfully as their white brothers.

They want to enjoy all the privileges of this country and make all the money they can while paying the smallest possible amount of taxes.

DISTINGUISHED DEMOCRATS.

How San Francisco Takes the Nomination of Cleveland.

Mr. S. C. Wright who returned yesterday from San Francisco says that San Francisco county will go against Cleveland 10,000 majority.

In convention yesterday he said, "I was astonished beyond expression by what I saw there."

On the night of the torchlight parade there was not over six hundred men in line and there was no enthusiasm, outside the Examiner office, where the fireworks were ablaze.

The transparencies all had the name of Thurman and Bob Farrell, Cleveland did not seem to be thought of."

OLD LINES QUIT.

"I met scores of old line Democrats who merely said they would vote against Cleveland."

The "economy and reform" nonsense and Civil Service Reform fake has knocked him out down there as well as the free trade policy of the administration.

Dick Kelly an old line Democrat is round telling Democrats openly that he is going to vote for any decent man the Chicago Convention nominate.

I was with him one day when he was talking pretty loud and one said "Hush Dick" don't talk that way, "Go to the devil" was his reply "I'm here to talk, and I shall vote as I talk."

"Kape quiet Dick, I'll vote just your way, but there is no need shouting over it. Lets kape our flopping quiet."

A SUGGESTIVE INCIDENT.

I was in the Park last Sunday sitting on a rustic bench about fifty more people were in hearing when a little boy came long selling Cleveland badges but no one would buy.

At last he came near an old lady about seventy years of age.

"Cleveland badges madam?" said the boy.

"No, young man, we are all Americans here."

Every one in hearing began clapping their hands and all down the line where the boy tried to sell a Cleveland badge he got the reply, "Americans here too." When men rose to go and passed that old lady they lifted their hats to her.

I reiterate my assertion that San Francisco county will give a large majority against Cleveland."

Wilber's Comedy Company.

Of this company the Portland, Or., Mercury of September 17th says: "The Wilber Company have done a land-office business at the Casino for the last week. They changed the bill every night, and not only gave general satisfaction, but also played to audiences ranging from 1,400 to 1,700 people. Their plays embraced popular pieces none of them had been played here to excess, added to the fact that they were strongly cast and well mounted as to properties and scenery. Then the prices were lower than had ever been before established in Portland, which, coming as it did upon a long closed season of amusements, served to crowd the house nightly so there was only standing room after the first act. Mr. Wilber is a man who has studied theatrical management closely and felt the popular pulse closely indeed. His name will always hereafter be associated in Portland, at least, with good entertainments at low prices. We predict a goodly reception for his troupe at any place it may visit after leaving here."

The Babies Cry For It.

And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines. It strengthens the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy activity. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, Agent.

The Reason Why.

First Chippie—Say Chawles why are you going to vote the Democratic ticket?

Second Chippie—So English you know my dear bo-boy.

First Chippie—Ba Jove! What an i-deah. If I was only a little older I weally believe my dear bo-boy I'd vote the ticket myself.

FROM CHICAGO.

How Things Look for Various Candidates.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Chairman Jones of the Republican National Committee was so swift in his denial of the Blaine letter rumor that all ideas of an endorsement of Sherman by Blaine at this stage of the game may as well be thrust aside. A careful canvass of the situation shows that Sherman has very little positive strength outside of the Ohio delegation, and his candidacy is viewed with sublime indifference by everybody but his aggressive though non-enthusiastic supporters. There is no utterance of Sherman's that furnishes a good slogan, and his cold and repellent nature is hardly calculated to arouse popular interest. Even the Ohio delegation is not a unit for Sherman, and the delegates against him are against him good and strong. The stories of Sherman's great strength are simply canards. As matters now stand, he may make a fair showing of votes on the first ballot, polling, perhaps, over 200. But these votes do not indicate a positive strength and will be largely in the nature of a compliment from Southern Republicans. Lacking personal popularity and tact Sherman has not acquired the friendship of the everyday Republicans and cannot secure any hurrah votes. If he should carry off the prize, in the confusion of the struggle, the party would take chances in the State of New York that are admittedly ticklish and undesirable. Sherman cannot now, as far as is known, count on the vote or special friendship of a single delegate from New York.

THE ALGER FIGHT

Is in good shape and improving. Nevada will probably fall into line for Alger after a complimentary vote for Depew, and when this incident occurs there will be breaks from other directions. The preliminary skirmishing is breezy and exhilarating, and aside from the fight between the respective adherents of Harrison and Gresham, few signs of bitterness are apparent. Alger enjoys perfect immunity from party assaults. He has gained strength steadily and each day he takes a step forward. He has the confidence of Blaine, and while that gentleman may not announce his preference for him at the outset, he will undoubtedly see that his good opinion of Alger is made known to the delegates. For that matter, it is already reported that Walker Blaine has received a letter from his father endorsing Alger.
